(1) Rather than shutting down the habit of drawing in his school's workbook, Joe's parents decided to encourage his creativity by sending their son to an after-school art class. His teacher recognized Joe's talent and posted all his work online, which led to something pretty wonderful.

(2) A restaurant named "Number 4" in Newcastle contacted Joe's teacher to ask if the 9-year-old could come and decorate its dining-room with his drawings. M: Yes, I was thinking that around 6:00 would be good too. (8-2) What food should we provide?

W: Well, I had thought about baking a cake, and some biscuits. Section C

Questions 16 to 18 are based on the passage you have just heard.

(16) Pigs are not native to North America. They were first introduced to California by Spanish and Russian explorers and settlers many centuries ago. In the early times, pigs were allowed to wander freely in search of food. This practice also allowed many pigs to escape from farms and live in the wild, which became a problem.

In fact, as one of the most damaging invasive species on the continent, (17) wild pigs cause millions of dollars in crop damage yearly. They also harbor dozens of diseases that threaten both humans and farm animals. Forest patches with wild pigs have been found to have considerably reduced plant and animal diversity. In addition to either eating other animals or their food supply, wild pigs damage native habitats by rooting up grasses and rubbing on trees. Their activities may also create opportunities for invasive plants to colonize these areas. Wild pigs will eat almost anything containing calories. Mice, deer, birds, snakes and frogs are among their victims. They can also harm other wild species through indirect competition, rather than eating them or shrinking their food supply. On one particular United States island, wild pigs themselves became an attractive food source for a species of mainland eagle. (18) The eagles began breeding on the island, and also feeding on a species of native fox. The foxes were almost wiped out completely.

答案详解

16. What do we learn about early pigs in North America?

Questions 19 to 21 are based on the passage you have just heard.

(19) A pair of entrepreneurs are planning to build and launch a spacecraft that would carry and roast coffee beans in outer space.

The craft will use the heat of re-entry to roast coffee beans as they float inside it in a pressurised tank. The effect would be to roast the beans all over, and produce perfect coffee. (20) The businessmen say that on Earth, beans can easily break apart and get burned in the roaster. But if gravity is removed, the beans float around in a heated oven, received 360 degrees of evenly distributed heat and roast to near perfection.

The spacecraft will reach a height of around 200 km. The beans would then be roasted in the heat generated by the craft's 20-minute re-entry into Earth's atmosphere. Temperatures in the pressurised tank will be kept to around 200℃.

Once back on Earth, the planet's first space-roasted beans would be used to make coffee that would be sold for the first time in Dubai. This is where the pair's company is based. It is not clear how much they would charge for a cup.

Surprisingly, the Space Roaster concept—should it go ahead—will not be the first attempt to take coffee into space. (21) In 2015, two Italian companies, collaborated on the construction of a similar type of spacecraft, which was the first coffee machine designed for use in space.

Questions 1 and 2 are based on the news report you have just heard.

(2) An 81-year-old man ended up in Germany by accident after trying to get from Newcastle, Great Britain, to Rome, Italy.

(1) The old age pensioner was on a mission to see the Pope, who is head of the Catholic Church, and decided to make his way there by car.

He was surprised when his GPS system told him he had arrived, although there were no signs of any of the famous buildings or architecture.

The man parked but didn't put on the handbrake of his car properly.

His car rolled backwards, and in a striking display of irony, hit a sign saying "Rom"—the small town in North Germany he had mistakenly plugged into the GPS system.

Police said that the car had come to a halt after hitting the sign, but did not appear to be seriously damaged, although an ambulance was called to check on the pensioner.

The man, who lives in the UK and is originally Italian, might have been confused by the fact that Rome is written "Roma" in Italian and "Rom" in German.

Reaching our goals will need exactly this kind of partnership approach—with government, business, local authorities and citizens all playing their part."

(4) Speaking ahead of the All Energy Conference being held in Glasgow, ScottishPower chief executive Keith Anderson said: "We have a large supply of renewable energy on our doorstep and one of the only two low emission zones in action across the UK. Questions 8 to 11 are based on the conversation you have just heard.

M: (8-1) Has Jimmy been coming in lately?

W: No, I haven't seen him around. Why? Has he been causing any trouble?

M: Not that I know of. (8-2) But I need to see him, because my friends and I lent him some money last month.

We haven't heard from him since. I heard he comes here a lot, so I thought I'd come in and check with you.

W: Well, that's funny. Some other fellow came in asking for Jimmy just yesterday, (9) a real nervous, pushy type of fellow, saying he needed Jimmy for some study project they were working on. But I can't quite remember what it was all about. Is this a lot of money we're talking about here?

M: No, just 60 pounds between the three of us, but still a bit too much to just let go. (10) He told us he'd got into an accident. Nothing serious, mind you, but he damaged someone's car and wanted to get some money together to make up for the damage he'd caused.

W: Hmm, isn't that sort of thing usually covered by insurance? And then, if you still wanted to give money as some sort of apology or something, he probably shouldn't have to go around borrowing it from people.

M: You think Jimmy's just making it all up? See, I did think it was a bit weird for him to be asking for money for that sort of thing. And his story was a bit vague to begin with. (11) But I thought maybe he doesn't want his parents to know about what happened. So he'd rather come to us and keep things quiet. Anyway, Jimmy is a good guy. So we didn't make a fuss about it.

Questions 12 to 15 are based on the conversation you have just heard.

W: Hi, Max. How are you? Listen. (12) I wanted to ask you about ordering shopping online. I've never done it before and I know that you've been doing it for ages.

M: Sure. I love getting my shopping delivered. It makes life so much simpler—(13) no carrying heavy shopping bags in the rain, or trying to park the car on those huge supermarket car parks then not being able to find it again after you come out of the shops.

W: (14) But there must be some problems. I mean, how do you know that you won't get bad fruit, or that the eggs won't be broken?

M: Oh, come on. The food is exactly the same as the stuff you buy in a conventional shop. They aren't going to deliver you food that is out of date. And if you get a broken egg, well, that could happen in a conventional shop, too. If anything is really wrong, you can just take photographs of the damage, and they will give you the money back or replace the item.

W: How about delivery fees? Is it not more expensive to get everything delivered?

M: (15) I actually found that it was cheaper for me, as I live quite far away from my local supermarket. So with the deliveries, I'm actually saving on petrol.

W: I've never thought of that. If you aren't driving your own car, then you are saving on fuel. Right, you've convinced me. I'm going to go on the computer now and give it a try. So, which supermarket do you think is the best to order from?

M: Oh, no. That's definitely up to you. Otherwise, we'll be here all day.

C) 【精析】细节推断题。对话中,女士认为网上购物会有一些问题,询问男士怎么知道自己不会收到坏水果或者收到碎鸡蛋。由此可知,女士担心网上购物会出现食品质量问题,因此答案为C)。

15. What does the man find about shopping online?

Questions 16 to 18 are based on the passage you have just heard.

(16) A recent study found that 10 percent of British children suffer from math anxiety. This means they have overwhelming negative emotions towards the subject, ranging from rage to despair. Other emotions triggered by math include feelings of tension and frustration. Physical symptoms include a racing heart or struggling to catch breath.

The phenomenon of math anxiety is characterized as a general sense of feeling that the subject is hard compared with other subjects leading to a subsequent lack or loss of confidence.

Researchers said they investigated individuals' attitudes towards mathematics because of what could be referred to as a mathematics crisis in the UK. (17) There's a widespread misunderstanding that only low performing children suffer from math anxiety. People automatically assume children are anxious about math because they are poor achievers.

In fact, more than three quarters of children with high levels of math anxiety are normal to high achievers.

Probably their math anxiety will go unnoticed because their performance is good. But in the long term their performance is negatively affected.

So the real danger here is that children who will completely be able to do math at a normal level may keep away from it because they feel anxious.

Math anxiety can severely disrupt students' performance in the subject in both primary and secondary school. (18) But importantly—and surprisingly—this new study suggests that the majority of students experiencing math anxiety have normal to high math ability.

答案详解

16. What did a recent study find about some British children?

D) 【精析】细节辨认题。短文开头指出,最近的一项研究发现,10%的英国儿童患有数学焦虑。这意味着他们对这门学科有着从愤怒到绝望的强烈的消极情绪,由数学触发的情绪还包括紧张和沮丧,特征表现为心跳加速或呼吸困难。因此,答案为D)。

17. What is the widespread misunderstanding about math anxiety?

B) 【精析】细节辨认题。短文中提到,有一种普遍的误解认为只有表现不佳的儿童才会患上数学焦虑,因此答案为B)。

18. What does the passage say about British students with math anxiety?

A) 【精析】细节辨认题。短文最后提到,一项新研究表明,大多数经历数学焦虑的学生,其数学能力正常或高于正常水平,即大多数有数学焦虑的学生有较强的数学能力,因此答案为A)。

Questions 19 to 21 are based on the passage you have just heard.

People spend a lot of time using phones and computers. Much of that time is devoted to text messages and social media. But many people choose to spend their time playing computer games.

For years, parents and teachers have worried that these games might be addictive. (19) And now, the World Health Organization has recognized addiction to computer games as a disease. The organization explains that this decision reflects general agreement among experts around the world that some people have a problem with these games. They show a pattern of behavior characterized by a lack of control. (20) Such people make computer games a priority over their responsibilities. They may play games instead of attending school, or work, or socializing.

According to the World Health Organization experts, people's use of computer games is different from their use of the Internet, social media and online shopping. These experts claim there is not sufficient data to indicate that people's reliance on those other activities is an addiction. But they argue that playing computer games to access is different. This behavior can become a disorder. To meet the new definition for addiction, the behavior must damage a person's relationships or performance at school or work, and this must last for at least a year. (21) Still not all behavior experts agree. Some argue that there's not enough research on the subject. Thus, they claim it is too early to call computer game addiction a disorder.

答案详解

19. What conclusion has the World Health Organization come to recently?

C) 【精析】细节辨认题。短文开头指出,人们花大量时间玩手机和电脑游戏,家长和老师担心这些游戏会使人上瘾;接着指出,世界卫生组织已经认定电脑游戏成瘾是一种疾病。因此答案为C)。

20. What is said of people with addictive behavior?

A) 【精析】细节辨认题。短文提到,世界卫生组织指出,世界各地专家普遍认为有些人对于玩游戏会

表现出一种缺乏控制的行为模式,他们把电脑游戏置于自己的责任之上,他们可能只玩游戏,而不去上学、工作或社交。A) 选项中的 favored activity 对应文中的 computer games, 选项中的 what they should do 则对应 their responsibilities, 因此答案为A)。

21. What do some behavior experts think of addiction to computer games?

D) 【精析】细节辨认题。短文最后指出,并非所有行

为专家都同意电脑游戏成瘾是种疾病的说法,有些人认为这方面的研究还不够,他们认为将电脑

游戏成瘾称为一种疾病还为时过早。因此答案为D)。

Questions 22 to 25 are based on the passage you have just heard.

Maybe you carry the most powerful passport in the world, or perhaps the rarest passport. Whatever the case, your passport will likely be one of four colors: red, blue, green or black, although there are slight variations. Switzerland's passport is dark red, for example, (22) while most European countries prefer a shade of red. That's almost brown.

(23) There are no official rules regarding passport colors, but countries follow a certain set of norms when designing them. The International Civil Aviation Organization, which works to define the principles of air travel, suggests that countries use a suitable type, size and style for official documents like passports.

There are also a few compulsory aspects of passports. They must be made from a material that bends. They should be able to be read by a machine at temperatures ranging from 10 degrees Celsius to 50 degrees Celsius, under the conditions where the air can be extremely dry or moist.

Despite these existing recommendations, there is nothing regarding the cover color. Why? (24) Simply put, countries stick to darker and more conservative colors because they appear more official. And they can also hide dirt and wear. While there's little innovation when it comes to passport cover color, the same cannot be said for the pages. (25) The passports of many countries can take images of their well-known geographical features and wildlife, which also function as security features as some are only visible under a special light.

答案详解

22. What do we learn about most European passports?

C) 【精析】细节辨认题。短文开头提到,各国护照以红色、蓝色、绿色或黑色为主,接着举例指出多数欧洲国家的护照更喜欢使用近似棕色的红色,因此答案为C)。

23. What does the passage say about the design of passports?

D) 【精析】细节辨认题。短文提到,对于护照的颜色没有官方规定,但是各国在设计护照时会遵循一定的标准,因此答案为D)。

24. Why are dark colors chosen for passport covers?

B) 【精析】目的原因题。短文提到,各个国家坚持护照封面使用深色和更保守的颜色,因为它们看起来更正式,因此答案为B)。

25. What is one special function of the images inside many passports?

D) 【精析】细节辨认题。短文最后提到,许多国家的护照上可以使用本国著名的地理特征和野生动物的图像,这些图像可以作为安全特征,因为有些图像只有在特殊的光线下才能看到,因此答案为D)。

Part II Listening Comprehension

Section A

Questions 1 and 2 are based on the news report you have just heard.

(1-1) United Airlines has apologised for mistakenly shipping an American family's pet dog thousands of miles in the wrong direction to Japan.

The dog owner's beloved 10-year-old dog named Buddy took an unexpected 16-hour flight to Tokyo following a mix-up by the airline.

The dog owner's family are currently in the process of moving. They were meant to be reunited with the pet in their new home city in Texas.

But when they arrived at the United Airlines cargo facility in the southern U. S. state, they found a stranger's dog waiting in Buddy's place.

(1-2) Both of the dogs had been sent to the wrong destinations on connecting flights from Denver, with Buddy mistakenly being sent to Japan instead.

"I'm so glad he's alive and coming home soon!" said the relieved dog owner.

Section B

Questions 8 to 11 are based on the conversation you have just heard.

W: (8) I can't believe that duck hunting is still legal in so many parts of the world. The scientific evidence from countries like Australia, Canada and the USA clearly indicates a decline in the birds' numbers.

M: But can anyone be sure if the decline is really caused by the hunting or by climate change?

W: It's caused by both in fact. (9) We see more droughts in countries like Australia. Ducks are birds that feed and breed in areas where there is a lot of water, but their habitats have been shrinking in recent decades because of the droughts.

M: And I guess with fewer places to inhabit, they concentrate in greater numbers in few areas, which surely makes them easier targets for the hunters.

W: It does. My grandfather was a duck hunter. He told me hunting ducks and geese began in the 19th century. They were easily found and plentifully available food source in farming areas, especially for poor immigrants.

M: What do they use for hunting during that period?

W: They use new types of guns, and birds could easily be shot down in flight. And in such great numbers, their commercial hunting of ducks and geese became an industry. (10) Yet, there's no commercial farming of these birds nowadays. Their meat is hardly eaten in Western countries.

M: No, duck hunting seemingly exists as the continuation of a tradition.

W: (11) Well, ducks have never been popular with farmers like my grandfather anyway because they sometimes destroy crops. In fact, farmers used to poison them in large numbers.

M: That somehow doesn't surprise me. Nobody places much value on the lives of these poor birds or on their meat.

答案详解

D) 【精析】事实细节题。对话开头,女士提到她无法相信猎杀鸭子在世界上很多地区仍然是合法的,因此答案为D)。

9. What does the woman say has caused the shrinking of ducks' habitats in Australia?

B) 【精析】目的原因题。对话中女士提到,现在并没有人对鸭子和鹅这些禽类进行商业养殖,因为在西方国家几乎没有人吃它们的肉,因此答案为B)。

11. What does the woman say about farmers in her grandfather's time?

M: Okay, Miss Bright. I've finished calculating. I estimate you have between 210 and 240 square meters of walls and ceiling.

W: (12-1) So, how much would the paint job cost?

M: That would depend on the quality of paint you choose. We carry two brands. One costs 60 cents every square meter, and the other 90 cents. The second is guaranteed to look great for about 10 years, whereas the cheaper one will start to dull after around six or seven years.

W: In that case, we would prefer the more expensive option.

M: All right, then. So including labor costs, taxes, and everything, this job would come to $3,000.

W: (13) Um, to be perfectly honest, that's more than I expected.

M: Please bear in mind that the price includes moving all the furniture, and the whole task would take two days.

W: Really? Why?

M: Well, we can't paint the walls without clearing all the furniture first. So every time we paint a room, we first have to move the furniture to another room. So that takes more time. Plus, it requires two people, which works out more expensive.

W: I see. But does that mean I could not live here in my own house during those two days?

M: That is correct.

W: Oh well, that changes everything, I'm afraid. (14) I would have to stay with a friend or check into a hotel. I hadn't considered any of that. (12-2) (15) I'm starting to realize that painting my house is far more troublesome than I had anticipated.

M: This is usually the case. Most of our clients go through the same realization.

W: I see.

M: You have my number. Please feel free to call me for any further questions.

W: Thank you.

Section C

Questions 16 to 18 are based on the passage you have just heard.

Homework is an important part of schooling, but the purposes of giving children homework will change as they grow older. (16) At the primary level, the main aim is to cultivate good habits, like learning to plan and exercising self-discipline. During the secondary school years, extending what is learned at school is positively related to academic achievement, so the content of homework becomes more important.

So how can you help your child do their best?

(17) Creating an ideal working environment will make it easier for them to get down to their assignments quickly. Make sure it's free of distractions, and—for primary school children at least—somewhere near you, so you can answer questions and offer encouragement.

You probably have to help younger children plan their session, but it's important that by the end of primary school it's second nature. Get them to tell you everything they have to do. Then encourage them to establish an order in which they do work.

(18) When there are several different assignments, make sure they begin with one they enjoy, so it seems easy to get started. It's best to take on the most difficult task second—once they're settled, but before they get tired.

If older children have more than an hour of homework, encourage them to schedule a short break to stretch.

If you encourage them to tell you what they've learned, they'll absorb the information more deeply and remember it more readily.

答案详解

16. What is the main aim of homework for primary school kids?

A) 【精析】目的原因题。短文开头指出,在小学阶段,布置作业的主要目的就是培养良好的习惯,比如学会做计划以及锻炼自律的能力。因此,答案为 A)。

17. What does the passage suggest parents do to help their children?

B) 【精析】事实细节题。短文中提到,创造理想的学习环境可以让孩子更容易尽快开始做作业。因此,答案为 B)。

18. What should children do to deal with multiple assignments?

C) 【精析】事实细节题。短文中提到,面对多重任务时,要确保孩子从最喜欢做的开始,这样似乎很容易开始。因此,答案为 C)。

Questions 19 to 21 are based on the passage you have just heard.

(19) Workers at Mexican oil company will receive a healthy incentive of almost $ 300 a year if they meet certain body weight standards. To qualify for the bonus, they must maintain a healthy weight. For those who are overweight or obese, they could receive the bonus if they reduce their weight by 10% during the year.

Some applaud the policy as fair, because it rewards both the individuals who maintain a healthy weight and those who are working towards achieving it.

(20) But critics say the policy contradicts recommendations by many health experts, who warn that a person's weight is influenced by genetic and environmental factors. That means weight can be hard for individuals to control, which makes the bonus unfair.

Some experts say the policy is inconsistent with the science of what we know about body weight regulation. These experts argue that focusing on wage is the wrong approach. (21) A more productive method of encouraging health among employees is to promote healthy behaviors. For example, companies can give workers gym memberships, or encourage participation in lectures on healthy eating and living. They can also reduce sweets and provide healthier snacks in the office and healthier meals at the company canteen. Or they can give employees more time during their lunch break to exercise. These are much better and much more productive ways for companies to move forward on their employees' wellbeing.

19. Who will qualify for the bonus in Mexican oil company?

A) 【精析】事实细节题。短文开头指出,墨西哥石油公司的员工如果达到一定的体重标准,每年将获得近 300 美元的健康奖励。为了获得奖金,他们必须保持健康的体重。由此可知,体重达到一定标准的员工即可获得奖金,故答案为 A)。

20. What do critics think of Mexican oil company's bonus policy?

D) 【精析】事实细节题。短文中提到,评论家们认为,墨西哥石油公司的奖励政策违背了健康专家们的

建议。这些专家们警告说一个人的体重受到基因和环境因素影响,这意味着个人很难控制自己的体重,这使得这一奖励政策有失公平。因此,答案为 D)。

21. What do experts propose companies do about workers' wellbeing?

C) 【精析】事实细节题。短文中提到,专家们认为,关注工资对于改善健康来说是一个错误的策略。鼓励员工关注健康更有效的方法是提倡健康的行为。因此,答案为 C)。

Questions 22 to 25 are based on the passage you have just heard.

(22) Campaigners have warned that the British government is not doing enough to prevent left-handed pupils from falling behind their peers. They claim that thousands of children are still being "penalized" for being left-handed. This is due to a lack of action from ministers, who've failed to take any meaningful action for years.

It is feared that a failure to address early-year challenges, such as poor handwriting, leads to much more serious problems down the line—with these pupils facing reduced career prospects.

(23) Studies in recent years show that left-handed children are more likely to suffer with learning difficulties and their scores are lower on IQ tests.

Campaigners feel it's strange that children in British schools are penalized because they happen to be left-handed. They don't understand why successive governments have failed to act on this. (24) They want the department of education to record which children are left-handed and what their educational attainments are, since they make up some 10% of the population.

In early-year education, left-handed children are struggling and making a mess of their handwriting. Educators don't know how to deal with this. In many cases, there is no active help and a lack of teacher training. (25) Campaigners point out that a high percentage of the prison population is left-handed. They say that these prison numbers are unusually high and ask why it is the case.

22. Why are some people criticizing the British government?

A) 【精析】目的原因题。短文开头提到,活动者们警告过英国政府,他们没有做出足够的努力来防止左利手的孩子落后于同伴,因此答案为 A)。

23. What do studies in recent years show about left-handed children?

D) 【精析】事实细节题。短文中提到,近几年的研究表明,左利手的孩子更容易遇到学习上的困难,而且他们的智商测试分数较低,因此答案为 D)。

24. What do the campaigners demand the department of education do?

D) 【精析】细节推断题。短文中提到,他们要求教育部门记录哪些孩子是左利手以及这些孩子的在校成绩,因此答案为 D)。

25. What do the campaigners want to know about left-handed prisoners?

B) 【精析】细节推断题。短文最后提到,活动者们指出,监狱中左利手的人占比很高,这些监狱的数量异常多,他们想知道为什么会是这样的情况。因此,答案为 B)。

They thought Prickles had died in the fire. But instead, (3-2) the young sheep escaped into a 200-acre forest near the farm. Questions 16 to 18 are based on the passage you have just heard.

(16) A new study carried out by the University of Lincoln has found a link between the personalities of cat owners and the behaviour and wellbeing of their cats. The findings suggest that, just as a parent's personality can affect the personality of a child, the same is true for a cat and its owner.

Owners—defined as individuals with high levels of anxiety, fear, anger, depression and loneliness—were more likely to have cats with behavioural issues.

Such cats displayed more aggressive and anxious behavioural styles as well as more stress-related sickness. They were also more likely to have an ongoing medical condition and be overweight.

The research also found that mentally well-adjusted owners had calmer, happier and healthier cats.

The researchers explained that “Many owners regard their pets as a family member, and form close social bonds with them.” (17) The majority of owners want to provide the best care for their pets and it's therefore possible that pets could be affected by the way their owners interact with and manage them. (18) The study highlights an important relationship between our personalities and the wellbeing of our pets. Further research is needed to investigate the causal nature of this relationship and to look at how owners' personalities are directly influencing their pets' behaviour and wellbeing.

It is possible that the wellbeing of pets is driven by the underlying nature of the owner, not simply by their conscious decisions and behaviours.

答案详解

16. What do we learn from the new study by the University of Lincoln?

Questions 19 to 21 are based on the passage you have just heard.

(19-1) “One 60-minute run can add seven hours to your life.” This was a claim made by The Times last week. The claim was based on a new review of studies about the effects of running. (19-2) The review concluded that on average runners live three years longer than non-runners and that running does more to extend life than any other form of exercise. But there's more to running than its health benefits. (20) Research published in recent years has shown that running changes your brain and mind in some fascinating ways, from increasing your brain function to regulating your emotions. However, the precise effects vary according to whether you engage in short, fast running or long-distance running.

For example, in one study, researchers compared participants' ability to learn new words after several minutes of intense running and after 40 minutes of gentle running. Participants were able to learn 20 percent faster after the intense running and they showed a superior memory when tested again a week later.

In another study, researchers asked volunteers to jog for 30 minutes and then showed them clips from a sad movie. Participants who usually struggled to handle negative emotions were more intensely affected by the sad clips, just as you'd expect. (21) But crucially, this was less so if they had completed the 30-minute jog. The researchers said moderate exercise appears to have helped those participants to be less vulnerable to the impact of the sad movie.

Questions 22 to 25 are based on the passage you have just heard.

(22-1) Welcome to the tour of the Hill House. This house built in 1904 is one of the most well-known works of Charles Hill, the famous architect. It was designed and built for a local entrepreneur and his family.

(22-2) Before starting the tour, let me give you a brief introduction about the design of this amazing building.

(23) Prior to beginning his design, the architect spent some time in the client's old home, observing their life and studying their habits. This meant that he could design the house according to the needs of the family.

(24) The client's main desire was to have a home with the unique design, so the architect was given complete freedom. The building style is radically different from what was the fashion of the period. At the time, most large homes were constructed of timber and brick. This one, however, is made of concrete, a novel construction material in those days. The interior of the house, including fittings and furniture, was also designed by the same person. Most of the furniture you will see is original and in good condition. However, (25) those pieces in the children's bedrooms are copies built to the designs of the architect. Fortunately, all the blueprints for both the building and its contents have been preserved, so we've been able to replace badly damaged furniture. (22-3) Let's begin our tour, starting from the rooms.
