

1. 目前社会上有不少假冒伪劣商品 (fake commodities)。为何会有这种现象？

2. 举例阐明假冒伪劣商品对消费者个人、社会等危害。 Harmfulness of Fake Commodities : In recent years, a lot of fake commodities have appeared in the market. These fake commodities have done great harm to the consumers and the society. Since the policy of reform was implemented, China's economy has improved. A lot of people getting richer, and their living conditions are getting better. But still some of them are not satisfied. They dream of getting rich overnight and living a heavenly life, which, of course, is impossible to achieve by fair means. So they risk breaking the law to produce the market take commodities. Once these fake commodities enter the market, they will do immeasurable harm to the society. The direct victims are the consumers. As the quality of the fake commodities is always very poor, the consumers may suffer great losses. Certain fake commodities, such as food and medicine, will cause irreparable harm to the health and wellbeing of the consumers. Fake commodities also cut into the profits of the brandnameowners. Since the fake ones are cheaper, people tend to be reluctant to buy the genuine ones.
