

四级考试近年试卷真题及答案

一、写作部分（15%）

题目：假设你是李华，你的英国朋友Tom计划来中国旅游，你想给他写一封信，介绍你所在的城市。请你写一封信，内容包括：

1. 欢迎Tom来中国；
2. 介绍你所在的城市；
3. 建议Tom游览的景点和活动；
4. 期待与Tom见面。

答案：

Dear Tom,

I'm so excited to hear that you are planning to visit China! I would like to extend my warmest welcome to you and introduce you to my hometown.

My hometown is located in the southeastern part of China and is known for its rich history, beautiful landscapes, and vibrant culture. It has a population of over ten million people and is a major national and international hub for business, education, and tourism.

Firstly, I would recommend that you visit our city's ancient theater, which is a UNESCO World Heritage Site. The theater has a history of over 2,000 years and is still in use today. You will be able to witness traditional performances and appreciate the unique architecture of the building.

Secondly, don't miss the beautiful lakes and parks in our city. One of the most famous lakes is called West Lake, which is surrounded by gardens, temples, and pagodas. You can take a boat ride on the lake and enjoy the stunning scenery.

Lastly, I would suggest that you try some of our local cuisine, which is known for its delicious flavors and variety. Some of the must-try dishes include hotpot, dumplings, and spicy chicken.

I am really looking forward to meeting you in person and showing you around my hometown. Let's make sure to plan our itinerary in advance so that we can make the most of our time together.

Best regards,

Li Hua

Passage 1

Questions 10-13 are based on the following passage.

The Internet has revolutionized the way we live, work, and communicate. It has opened up a world of possibilities and has become an essential tool for modern life. However, along with its benefits, the Internet also brings challenges and risks.

One of the major benefits of the Internet is the easy access to information. With just a few clicks, we can find answers to our questions, learn new skills, and stay informed about current events. The Internet has also made communication more convenient, allowing us to connect with friends and family across the globe through email, social media, and video calls.

However, the Internet also poses risks, particularly in terms of privacy and security. Cybersecurity threats, such as hacking and phishing, have become increasingly common. In addition, the vast amount of information available on the Internet can be overwhelming, making it difficult to determine what is accurate and reliable.

To address these challenges, it is important to develop digital literacy skills. This includes being able to critically evaluate information, protect personal privacy, and use technology responsibly.
